DAMAGE AT BRUNSWICK, GA. Five Lives Known to Be Lost and Others Missing.

News received from Brunswick, Ga., gives some particulars of the most disastrous storm in Brunswick's history. Five lives are known to have been lost, and probably many more persons perished, as fishermen are out and have not been heard from. The damage to property is difficult to estimate, but will not be less than half a million dollars. The gale blew about sixty-five miles an hour. The opera house, St. Anhanasius and St. Jude's Episcopal churches are wrecks. Glauber & Isaacs' wholesale grain and hay building is a wreck; loss, $12,000. Beautiful oak trees, the pride of Brunswick's citizens, are lying prostrate all over the city. Two-thirds of the business houses are unroofed, and about twenty are almost Damages to stocks of goods from the rain probably will reach $80,000. Trees were blown down across many residences, and about one hundred small houses were blown down. The plant of the electric light and water company was wrecked; damage,

Tom Burgess and child, negroes, were killed by falling houses. Three negroes on a lighter in the bay were blown across the bar and have not been seen since. Shipping was damaged as follows: Spanish bark Incamation, loaded with lumber, for Valencia, aground and going to pieces; Spanish brig Anton, loaded with lumber for Barcelona, stranded and leaking; schooner L. R. Dennison, from Portland, Me., blown from quarantine, several hundred yards up a small creek; the American bark H. S. Rauth, loaded with cross-ties for New York, stranded; schooner Sarah Fuller, broke her moorings and was blown a mile down the bay and stranded; Norwegian bark Longfellow, broke her moorings and blown a mile away and stranded; brig Jen-nie Hurbert, loaded with lumber, blown adrift off St. Simon's. Several pilot boats, tugs and smaller craft were greatly damaged. The large pine saw mill of the Hilton-Dodge Lumber Company of St. Simon's Island was blown down. Two cypress mills of the same company were unroofed and greatly damaged. Telephone, electric light and telegraph wires are down. The government quarantine station was leveled. DESTRUCTION IN FLORIDA.

Lives Lost and Great Damage to Prop erty Caused by the Storm. The reports from various parts of Florida tell of widespread destruction. Five people were killed and many injured at Lake City. Three school children were killed at Boulogne and others hurt, and fatalities occurred at many other places in the state in the path of the storm. In every instance fatalities occurred in collapsed buildings. The estimated damage to the turpentine and lumber camps in the central part of the state is half a million dollars.

A great deal of damage was done along lines of the Florida Central and Peninsular and Plant systems between Jacksonville and Savannah. Houses and stations were unroofed. This was particularly true be-tween Everett and the St. Mary's river on the former road, whole forests of turnen-tine trees being laid flat. Fully 500 trees fell across the railroad track, and the first train that came through after the storm had passed was nine and a half hours late A great deal of damage was done at Gainesville, High Springs and Newberry, which caught the storm in all its fury.

Throckmorton, Miss Lizzie Hynes, Mr. Luke Devlin and Mr. Washington Holt show cause Monday next why the court should not order the National Safe Deposit, Savings and Trust Company, administrators of the estate, to render an account and distribute among the heirs one-half of the personal estate, the share heretofore claimed by Miss Hynes under the alleged will of February 7, 1873.

will of February 7, 1873.

Under that alleged will Miss Hynes and Miss Throckmorton were made equal beneficiaries, Mr. Devlin being named therein as executor. Last August, after the so-called will had been declared by a jury never to have been made by Judge Holt, Miss Hynes withdrew from the appeal noted in the case, and assigned for a valuable consideration, of course, her interest in the estate to the next of kin. It is this half of the personal estate which the next of kin now personal estate which the next of kin now ask shall be distributed among them, the administrators being willing to do so, pro-vided they are protected by an order of the court. The next of kin agree that a reasonable sum shall be withheld to cover the claims of Mr. Devlin under the alleged will.

PROF. SHERMAN'S FUNERAL.

Interment Was Made Yesterday After-Prof. Harry C. Sherman, who died suddenly Tuesday night during the height of the cyclone, was laid at rest yesterday afternoon in the presence of a large number of sorrowing friends. Funeral services were conducted at his late residence, "Olney," in Montgomery county, Md., by Rev. Mr. Laird, rector of the Episcopal Church at Olney, and the interment was made in the beautiful cemetery, "Woodside," picturesquely situated on the banks of the Patuxent river near the village of Ashton. Owing to the brevity of the notice and the almost impassable condition of the roads in the vicinity the attendance of friends and relatives in this city was comparatively small, considering the great popularity of the deceased. Mr. Charles H. Brooke of Falling Green, Mr. Alban Brooke of Willow Grove and almost the vicinity of the deceased. of Willow Grove and six other neighbor acted as pallbearers.

BRYAN IN WEST VIRGINIA.

Throng Greeted the Democratic Can date at Wheeling Last Night. The Bryan party left Grafton, W. Va. at 8:30 o'clock yesterday morning and arrived at Clarksburg an hour later. Two speeches were made at Clarksburg. After leaving Clarksburg Mr. Bryan went to Parkersburg. The train was due at half-past 2 o'clock n the afternoon, and arrived a few minutes after that time. Eight hours of continuous rain had turned the town into a quagmire, and kept thousands of people away, yet the crowd was enormous, taxing the capacity of the streets in the central portion of the city to the utmost. Mr. Bryan made a speech that was often ap-

The crowd which greeted Mr. Bryan at Wheeling last night was certainly not less than 30,000, and yet the continuous rain of the preceding sixty hours kept many away. Every railroad entering Wheeling from Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia ran special trains and carried large delegations. Thousands came on horseback and in wagons from the surrounding country. The special train bearing the party arrived at Wheeling at 7:30, and the candidate and his friends alighted at 23d street, where carriages were waiting. About twen-ty campaign clubs had been drawn up there in order, preparatory to escorting the speaker to the state fair grounds, on Wheeling Island. At the fair grounds, which were reached at 8:15 o'clock, the meeting was called to order by Attorney General T. S. Riley, who introduced Paul A. Reymann as the presiding officer. Mr. Reymann's remarks were brief. He introduced Mr. Bryan, who

Weather as Noted During the Month of Sep-

Aid for a Distressed Family-Loca Notes of General and Especial Interest.

The meterological summary for the month of September, from observations taken at Brace's drug store, corner of 30th and M streets, by Prof. M. F. Burrows, shows the following: The maximum temperature was 93 degrees occurring on the 19th instant. while the minimum was 39 degrees, occurring on the 24th instant. The mean temperature for the month was 66.8 degrees, with a monthly range of 54 degrees. The total rainfall for the month was 3.26 inches. The average daily rainfall was 11-100 inches, while there were twelve days upon which 1-100 or more of an inch of rain fell. Thunderstorms occurred on the 3d, 15th, 18th and 19th. There were thirteen clear days; seven fair ones and ten cloudy days. The prevailing direction of the wind was from the south. While no frost is reported for the month for this section of the city it is known that there was frost in the country around the District.

Raising a Fund. The fund for the aid of the family of Frederick Lenz, who was killed by the collapse of the Mitchell building, on M street, has excited considerable interest among the residents of this section of the city. The deceased left a family of which he was the deceased left a family of which he was the sole support, and left no means to keep them in existence. A lady, whose name is withheld, contributed $2 this morning to the worthy project, making the fund so far amount to $9.25. Mr. Peter Rosenbush contributed $1, still further increasing the fund. The movement started by a few Georgetown citizens is expected to result in a much larger sum before many days have passed. Heirs Wish Half of Personal Property

The police patrol system of Georgetown is entirely out of repair, and from indiof the late Judge Advocate General Joseph Holt, directed that Miss Josephine Holt just been repaired a day or so before the storm, and now its condition is worse than ever. Most all of the wires are down, and ever. Most all of the wires are down, and in many cases the boxes have been damaged. The telegraph pole in front of the old station house on 32d street, which held a box, was blown down, and the box severely damaged. The wagon service is consequently tied up, and the police are forced to walk all prisoners to the station Narrow Escape.

Elmer McKinley, a young man, had a narrow escape from serious injury yesterday morning, shortly before noon. He was driving a carriage belonging to Smoot, the dairyman, which was loaded with ice. While on 32d street, almost in front of Weaver's hardware store, the horse became unmanageable and commerced kicking, breaking in the front dashboard and snapping the shafts. The driver lost his seat by the occurrence, and slid out in front of the wagon to the back of the horse's hind legs, and landed on the ground directly beneath the carriage, the horse keeping on. That the young man was not injured seems little short of miraculous.

Notes. Messrs. James Appleby and John E. Mayfield returned yesterday from a cycling trip of about 500 miles, through Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania. They were gone about eight days, and visited most of the prominent towns in western Maryland, taking in York, Pa., and the famous battlefield of Gettysburg.

Adam Smackum and Mary Anley were married yesterday at the parsonage of The funeral of Miss Nellie Kearney was held this morning at Trinity Church with a solemn mass of requiem.
